IELTS FOUNDATION · UNIT 5

Food

Ingredients, cooking and describing a process

Vocabulary | Grammar | Reading | Listening | Writing | Speaking

Mindset for IELTS Foundation · Unit 5 · Book pp. 58–69

LEARNING GOAL

Talk and write about food, ingredients and how to cook a dish

Objectives: you will...

- identify ingredients and food groups
- use countable and uncountable nouns
- complete sentences from a text
- listen and complete the steps of a recipe
- describe a process
- speak about a meal you enjoy

Success criteria: I can...

- use boil, chop, fry, mix, fold and roll
- use a / an, some / any, much / many
- check my answer is exactly what the text says
- predict an answer before I listen
- use first, next, then, after that, finally
- give a reason why I like a meal

IELTS STRATEGIES

Test habits to build in this unit

READING · TIP 6 P. 60, BOXES PP. 64–65

Use the key words to find the answer. It must be exactly what the text says. Sometimes you choose from a list of words.

LISTENING · TIPS 8 AND 9 P. 60

There may be more options than people. Listen to all of the information.

LISTENING · TIP 15 AND BOX P. 62

Predict before you listen. You won't always hear the exact words: listen for the specific information.

WRITING · TIP 24 P. 64

When you describe a process, link your ideas with sequencing words.

Unit 5 · Food · Book tips: p. 60 (Tips 6, 8, 9), p. 62 (Tip 15, box), p. 64 (Tip 24, box), p. 65 (box)

LEAD-IN

Which country is this dish from?

Pad thai
noodles, egg, peanuts

Paella
rice, seafood, chicken

Sushi
rice, raw fish

Dumplings
flour, meat, cabbage

Have you tried them? What is a famous dish from your country?

VOCABULARY

Food groups

Meat	Fish / seafood	Vegetables	Carbohydrates	Other
chicken	salmon	cabbage	rice	salt
beef	prawns	carrot	noodles	garlic
lamb	tuna	onion	flour	oil
duck	lobster	broccoli	potatoes	pepper

Add two more to each column from food in your country. Which words are the same in your language?

VOCABULARY

Verbs for preparing food

boil
cook in very hot water

fry cook in hot oil

bake cook in an oven

chop cut into small pieces

mix
put things together

roll
make flat with a rolling pin fold bend in half

Mime it!
Your partner says the verb.

READING · EXACTLY WHAT THE TEXT SAYS

Watch the key words

"The Thai food fair takes place in the city park this year. Visitors can taste street food and watch chefs cook. Entry is free for children under 12."

Statement	Answer
The fair is in the park every year.	Not Given: only "this year"
Visitors can learn to cook.	Not Given: they watch
Everyone pays to enter.	False: free for children

IELTS STRATEGY

The key words help you choose the answer. Be careful: it must be exactly what the text says.

LISTENING · MATCHING

Why can’t they come?

People: 1 Ana 2 Ben 3 Kim

Reasons: A is working · B can’t afford it · C is ill · D is visiting family · E has an exam

“Ana wants to come, but she hasn’t got any money this month. Ben isn’t ill any more, but he’s at his grandma’s. And Kim has a shift at the café.”

Answers: 1 B 2 D 3 A

IELTS STRATEGY

There are more reasons than people, so you won’t use all the letters.

Listen to all of the information.

LISTENING · A COOKING DEMONSTRATION

Predict, then listen

1 _____ the potatoes in water. → a cooking verb

2 Cook them for _____ minutes. → a number

3 Add some _____ and pepper. → an ingredient

4 _____ everything together. → a cooking verb

IELTS STRATEGY

Before you listen, predict the information.

You won’t always hear the exact words: listen for the specific information you want.

GRAMMAR · FORM AND USE

Countable or uncountable?

Countable, singular

a carrot, an egg, an onion

a / an before the noun

Countable, plural

some potatoes, two eggs

add -s; use some or a number

Uncountable

some rice, flour, milk, water

no a / an, no -s

Count it? One egg, two eggs: countable. One rice, two rices? No: uncountable. Say a bowl of rice, a glass of milk.

GRAMMAR · QUANTITIES

Some, any, much, many, a lot of

	Countable (eggs)	Uncountable (rice)
+	I have some eggs.	I have some rice.
– / ?	Are there any eggs?	There isn’t any rice.
a lot (+)	We have a lot of eggs.	We have a lot of rice.
How…? / –	How many eggs?	How much rice?
Offers	Would you like some biscuits?	Would you like some tea?

Unit 5 · Food · Formative check: Book p. 63, Ex 18; p. 67, Ex 5; p. 68, Ex 6–7

GRAMMAR · COMMON MISTAKES

Find the mistake

× Mistake	✓ Correct	Why
I’d like a bread.	I’d like some bread.	bread is uncountable
How much apples do we need?	How many apples do we need?	apples are countable
We don’t have some milk.	We don’t have any milk.	any in negatives
There isn’t many sugar.	There isn’t much sugar.	much + uncountable
Can I have an information?	Can I have some information?	information is uncountable

Find the mistake, say the rule, then write the correct sentence.

SPEAKING · EATING HABITS

Food questionnaire

How much water do you drink each day?

How many meals do you eat a day?

Do you eat a lot of sweets?

Are there any foods you don’t like?

Write two more questions. Then ask a partner.

READING · SENTENCE COMPLETION

Does the word fit the gap?

"First, ___(1) the noodles in water for five minutes. Then fry them ___(2) a little oil."

Gap	Options	Check
1	boil · boiling · boiled	boil: an instruction needs the base verb
2	with · of · at	with: fry with oil

IELTS STRATEGY

You may complete sentences with a word or number, with or without a list. When there is a list, check the word fits the grammar and the meaning.

WRITING · DESCRIBING A PROCESS

Link the steps

First,
the first step

Next, / Then
the following steps

While…
two things at the same time

After that,
a later step

Finally,
the last step

IELTS STRATEGY

You might be asked to write about a process, so practise linking your ideas with sequencing words.

WRITING · MODEL

Khao tom: rice soup from Thailand

To make khao tom, you need some cooked rice, some chicken, a piece of ginger, some garlic and an egg. First, boil some water in a pan and add the ginger. Next, chop the chicken into small pieces and put it in the water. While the chicken is cooking, fry the garlic in a little oil. After that, add the rice and cook it for five minutes. Finally, break the egg into the soup and put the garlic on top. Khao tom is popular because it is cheap, quick and easy to eat when you are ill.

Ingredients with a / an / some · sequencing words · cooking verbs · a reason

SPEAKING · A MEAL YOU ENJOY

Talk about your favourite meal

You should talk about

- who prepares it for you
- when you eat it
- why you like it

Useful language

My mum makes it with some…

We usually eat it on…

I love it because it’s spicy / sweet / healthy…

PAIR PRACTICE

Your turn, together

Student A

Ask: What do you usually eat for breakfast? How many meals do you have a day? Is there any food you don’t like?

Student B

Ask: What is your favourite dish? How much water do you drink? What food is popular in your country?

Ask, answer and add a reason. Then tell the class one thing about your partner.

REVIEW

Can you…?

- Name foods in five food groups
- Use boil, chop, fry, mix, fold and roll
- Use some / any and much / many correctly
- Check an answer is exactly what the text says
- Predict an answer before you listen
- Describe a recipe with sequencing words

Next: take the Unit 5 Challenge on Miss L Gems and submit your PDF on Google Classroom.